

National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) Transition Update

SEARCH, The National Consortium for Justice Information and Statistics

July 14, 2021

Ms. Drema Fouch
NIBRS Coordinator
Uniform Crime Reporting Program
Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division
Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)

NIBRS Participation

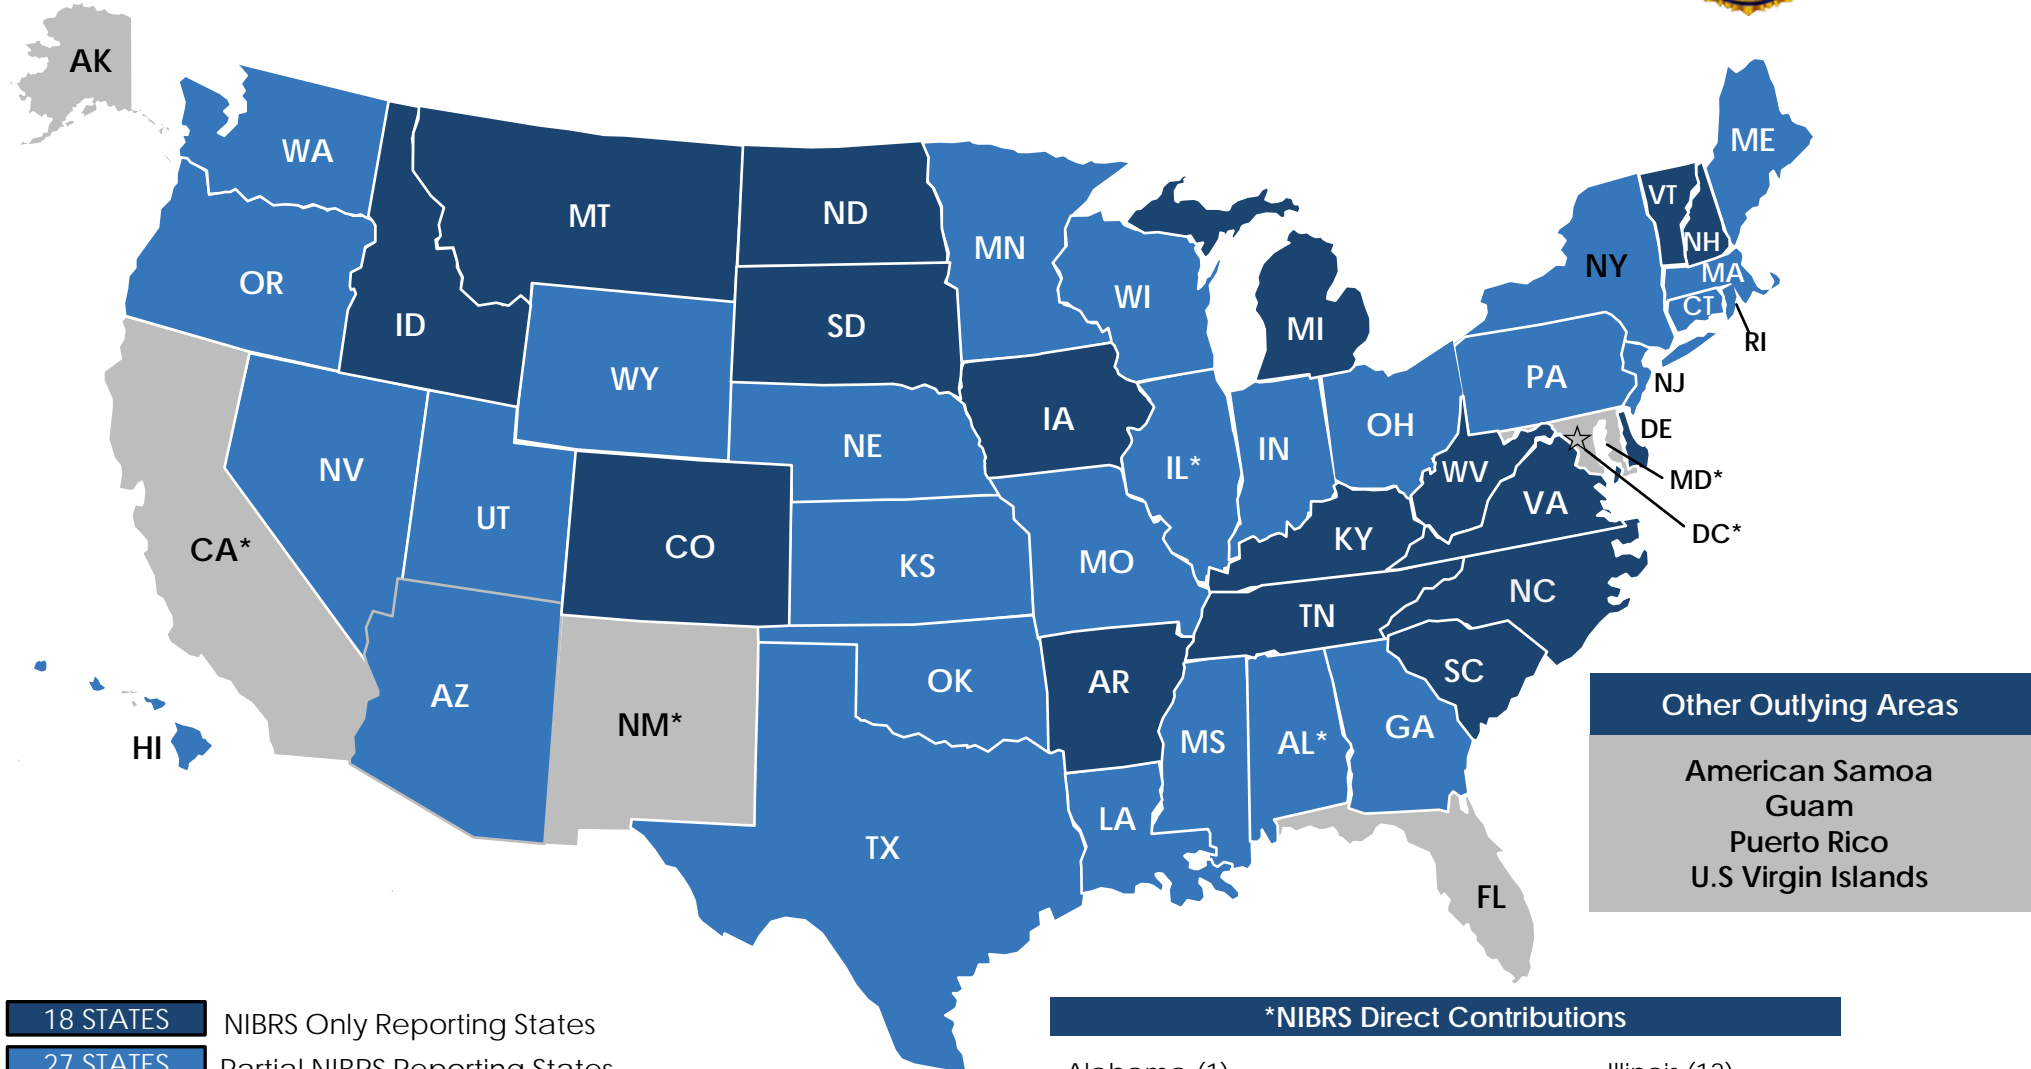

- 10,177 agencies reporting NIBRS data
- 61.5 percent of total agencies reporting NIBRS data
- 56.7 percent of the population represented by NIBRS reporting

NATIONAL INCIDENT-BASED REPORTING SYSTEM (NIBRS) PARTICIPATION STATUS

Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program - NIBRS Participation by State

July 2021

- 18 STATES NIBRS Only Reporting States
- 27 STATES Partial NIBRS Reporting States
- 5 STATES Developing NIBRS Capability at the State Level
- 1 AGENCY Developing NIBRS Capability

- *NIBRS Direct Contributions
- Alabama (1)
- California (10)
- Washington, DC (Transit Authority) (1)
- Illinois (12)
- Maryland (3)
- New Mexico (22)

State and Agency Certification

State Certification

Illinois

New Jersey

State Recertification

Idaho

Louisiana

Agency Certification

12 Illinois Agencies

8 New Mexico Agencies

Certification Testing

As of July 1, 2021:

States

California

Florida

Maryland

Agencies

1 Mississippi

9 New Mexico

3 Tribal

U. S. Territories

Guam

Federal and Tribal Agency Participation

As of July 1, 2021:

- 8 federal agencies submitting via the agency's case management system
 - Includes the FBI
- 31 federal agencies submitting via the NIBRS Collection Application (NCA)
 - Total agency universe – 100
- 128 tribal agencies submitting via the NCA
 - 30 tribal agencies submitting via a state
 - 1 tribal agency directly submitting
- 3 federal agencies are testing using the current case management system (U. S. Coast Guard, U. S. Forest Service, and the U. S. Air Force Security Forces)
- Total agency universe – 194

Other Certification

- On May 28, 2021, the Mississippi Department of Public Safety attained state UCR program certification.
- Every state now has an FBI-certified UCR program.